A modern bedroom with an industrial, urban aesthetic. The background wall is a mix of exposed red brick and weathered, peeling grey plaster. A round, black-framed clock is mounted on the left side of the wall. In the foreground, a dark wood bed frame is partially visible, topped with two large red pillows and a red blanket. To the right of the bed, a wooden cart with large metal wheels serves as a nightstand. It holds a stack of books, a large decorative ampersand, a small framed picture, and a small globe. A single black cord hangs from the ceiling. The floor is a light-colored concrete or stone.
